Theater Patrons Warned of Theft

Greek Theater patrons who purchased tickets by check on the dates of June 23, 24 or 25, are advised that their checks may have been among those lost in a robbery of the box-office June 26.

These checks, not covered by insurance, have not been recovered. If you purchased tickets on these dates, the Greek Theater Association would greatly appreciate your checking your bank statement. If the check in question has not cleared, please ask your bank to stop payment on it, then send a replacement check or call Mr. Harris, Normandy 3-1285.

MERRY-MAKING musical clowns, the Wilder Brothers and their Swinging Sextet are currently at Marineland Restaurant on the Palos Verdes peninsula. The comedy-vocal-instrumental group, signed by owner George M. Foster for a seven week engagement, entertain nightly except Mondays in the "Porpoise Room." Appearance marks the Wilder Brothers' fourth at the seacoast dining establishment.

Chinese Play Finishes Run

Footlight Theatre will present final performances of the Chinese fantasy "Lady Precious Stream" Friday and Saturday, July 14 and 15, at Crenshaw School, Torrance.

The play, which is presented in the round, similar to the Chinese theatre, has been playing for two weekends. Curtain time is 8:30 p.m. Reservations, call DA 4-6090.

Community Harmony Group Seeks Local Participation

"Good old songs in barber-shop quartet style have come to life again in the area. Now congenial men are joining their voices in furbelowed harmony each Monday night at 7:45 p.m. at the Anderson Memorial Recreational Center located at 9th and Mesa Streets, San Pedro," said Walter Jay Stephens of the organization.

The chorus practice rehearsal is sponsored by the Palos Verdes Peninsula Chapter of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barbershop Quartet Singing in America, Inc.

"New members of our chapter," said Stephens, past international board member of SPEBSQSA, Inc., "find there are qualities of inspiration about the favorite old songs that prompt a man to outdo himself in joining his voice in four-part harmony on such old favorites as 'When You Were Sweet Sixteen,' 'You Had a Dream, Dear,' 'When You and I were Young, Maggie,' 'I Want a Girl,' and others.

"These old-timers have something of the genius in them for they make the poorest singer confident that he is good after all, when he finds his voice blending in spine tingling close harmony chords and swipes," he said. Already almost 20 men from the area have joined the chapter, which is striving to have another 100 men join.

'The Nutcracker' Ballet Presented At Greek Theatre

The most famous ballet of all time—Tchaikovsky's exquisite "The Nutcracker" will be given in all the beauty of its full-length original and the opulence of the New York City Ballet production as romantically restored by history's great choreographer, George Balanchine, in the Greek Theater of Los Angeles for six gala performances at 8:30, August 4 to 9.

Harry Belafonte now holds the boards at the Greek Theater in a vivid new show featuring the African song stylist, Miriam Makeba.

Camino Campus Theater Presents Space Show

El Camino College is ready to contest Cape Canaveral's lead in the space race with its production of "Visit to a Small Planet" at the Campus Theater.

Scheduled for launching at 8:30 p.m. on July 14, Gore Vidal's satire spoofs the reactions of people under tension to unexpected events.

Kretton, played by David Violette, lands on Earth in his space ship while Roger Spelding, played by George Broodflax, is vigorously denying the existence of unidentified flying objects.

RIFLE RAISE
To stir up some excitement, Kretton attempts to start a war by raising all the rifles in the world thirty feet in the air.

General Powers, portrayed by Delane Cowan, is selected by the Air Force to handle the emergency. His application of techniques which he had formerly employed in the Laundry Corps adds to the play's humor.

LOVE INTEREST
Love interest is supplied by Carolyn Nowell and Jerry Oliver as Ellen Spelding and Conrad Mayberry, while Gilliam is seen as Mrs. Spelding.

Gary Bradbrook plays the role of the general's aide and Delton 4 is played by Don Danielsen.

Directing "Visit" is Mike Hoctor, theater arts major, who has played lead roles in several ECC productions.

SUPERVISING
Supervising all four of Camino's summer shows is Burnett Ferguson, drama instructor, assisted by Midge Kohlmann. Sets are by Les Thomas and his stagecraft class.

"Visit" will play July 14 and 15 only. Ticket information and reservations are available at the El Camino Student Store, DA 4-5631. Tickets may also be purchased at the door. Admission price is one dollar.
